

Undergraduates

Papers must be between 2500 and 4000 words long, excluding abstract and references, i.e. approximately between 10 and 15 pages double-spaced, excluding cover page, abstract, figures, and references. The Student Journal of Latin American Studies is an English-language journal open to authors from any academic institutions located anywhere in the world.

Submitting Your Paper - Undergraduates

All submissions must be sent via electronic mail to SJofLAS@gmail.com

Your submission must be formatted as follows:

1. The email subject should be: SJ Undergrad Submission - <Your Name>
2. The body of the email should include the following information: name, email, address, department, college/university, graduation month and year, paper title and abstract.
3. The email should also include a short paragraph stating that the manuscript is original work not under consideration for publication elsewhere and that the submission and publication of this manuscript will not conflict with previous copyrights.
4. The abstract should be between 150 and 200 words, summarizing the main points of your research paper.
5. Your full paper and figures should be attached to the submission email.
6. Your paper must be submitted as a MSWord document or a MSWord compatible document.
7. In addition to being inserted in the article, figures must be attached as .gif, .tif, and .jpg documents.
8. Multiple submissions are not allowed.
9. Any paper submitted to the Student Journal of Latin American Studies may not be under consideration by other academic journal at the time of submission and may not be submitted to other academic journal while under review by the Student Journal of Latin American Studies. Papers not accepted by SJofLAS may be submitted to other journals once the author has received notice of rejection.
10. The author of the submission must be an undergraduate student. Papers may be submitted up to one year after the author has graduated as long as the paper was written while the author was an undergraduate.
11. Manuscripts submitted after the deadline will not be accepted for the review process of that year's edition. Instead, they will be held for next year's round of review.

Acknowledgment of Submission:

SJofLAS will acknowledge the receipt of your manuscript by email. Manuscripts are not returned after review.